NEWS.

... BY ALICE CARY. Listen! listen! news of battle? Hark ! the crying in the street? O, the eager, anxious faces ! O the hearts with lear that best !

Leaning lowly from the windows. Mothers, wives and sweethearts say, To the crowd so wildly surging-Is there heavy news to-day?

And the mustering soldiers answer-Speaking sad and sheaking tow-Fourful, frighted wives and sweethearts, God be with you -we must go!

Silence! then a trembling whisper-Then the voices clear and strong, Answer. O beleagured city.

Take them! In thy day of darkness We accept the bitter cup. Take and bind them even as willows

Take and build them. 0 our mother, Round about thee like a wall ! And they answer, wives and sweathearts;
